OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is committed to equality in educational opportunities. Consistent with this principle and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the University does not discriminate in offering access to its educational programs and activities on any basis, including gender, gender expression, gender identity, sex, or sexual orientation. The University prohibits sexual assault and sexual violence, which are forms of prohibited harassment and discrimination. The University also prohibits related misconduct, including interpersonal (relationship) violence and stalking.

The Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office administers the Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment and Related Misconduct. Learn more at eoc.unc.edu.

FINDING SUPPORT

CONFIDENTIAL MEDICAL SUPPORT

If you have experienced physical or sexual violence, you are encouraged to seek confidential medical support from Campus Health Services or the Emergency Department at UNC Hospitals. These services may include a forensic exam, general examination, evidence collection, pregnancy testing and prevention, and/or testing for and treatment of sexually transmitted infections. A forensic exam can be obtained from these locations up to 5 days after an assault. Emergency contraception can be obtained from a pharmacist in North Carolina without a prescription or medical examination. Financial assistance for these services may be available through several funds, including the Survivor's Assistance Fund (visit safe.unc.edu).

Campus Health Services (for students and postdoctoral scholars)
campushealth.unc.edu | 919-966-2281 | Monday–Friday, 8am–5pm

Regardless of your identity, you should proceed directly to Women’s Health on the third floor of Campus Health Services (James Taylor Building).

Emergency Department at UNC Hospitals

(for employees, students, and the community)

med.unc.edu/emergmed | 919-966-4721 | 24 hours

You are encouraged to consider preserving evidence (e.g., evidence collection, forensic exams, and documenting the event) as soon as possible after an incident regardless of whether you have made the decision to contact law enforcement and/or to report the incident to the University. Evidence collected can be used to support a report if you make the decision to pursue these options at a later time.

CONFIDENTIAL EMOTIONAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SUPPORT

You can obtain confidential emotional and psychological support at any time. You can access these services regardless of when the incident occurred and whether you make the decision to contact law enforcement and/or to report the incident to the University.

Gender Violence Services Coordinator (for all members of the campus community who have experienced an incident)

REPORT THE INCIDENT

LAW ENFORCEMENT

Dial 911 in emergency situations for immediate assistance from law enforcement.

You are encouraged to report harassment, violence, and stalking to local law enforcement agencies regardless of when the incident occurred. Reporting to law enforcement may allow for a criminal investigation to be conducted and criminal charges to follow.

For emergency situations, dial 911 for immediate assistance. If you call 911 on campus, the University's Department of Public Safety (DPS) (campus police) will respond. For non-emergency situations, call local law enforcement or DPS's non-emergency number and ask to speak with an investigator. DPS will inform the necessary University staff of the incident.

If you are not ready to file a report with law enforcement, you can still call a local law enforcement agency and ask to speak with an investigator about what would happen if you file a report and the protective orders that are available.

University's Department of Public Safety (DPS) (campus police) dps.unc.edu | 919-962-8100 (non-emergency)

DPS will inform the necessary University staff of the incident.

Carrboro Police Department
ci.carrboro.nc.us/225/police | 919-918-7397 (non-emergency)

Chapel Hill Police Department
townofchapelhill.org/police | 919-968-2760 (non-emergency)

Orange County Sheriff's Office
