

Do you have immediate concerns for your safety?

-----

Would you like to start a criminal investigation so that criminal charges might be pursued?

- Call 911 in emergencies and seek assistance from local law enforcement

Do you have physical health concerns?

-----

Are you seeking to preserve evidence?

- Seek confidential medical support

Do you have emotional or mental health concerns?

- Seek confidential psychological or emotional support

Are you interested in having the University address the incident through disciplinary action or other means of resolution?

- Report to the University

Would any of the following be helpful:

-----

Change to housing, class, or work schedules?

No-Contact Order on campus?

Assistance with academics (i.e., rescheduling an assignment or exam, or tutoring)?

- Report to the University
(Note: You are not required to choose to pursue further action with the University to receive these interim protective measures.)

Are you interested in obtaining a protective order off campus for incidents of stalking, harassment, or domestic violence?

-----

Are you interested in other forms of relief?

- Connect to the court system