

Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office Online Services and Resources FAQs

If you need immediate law enforcement or medical assistance, dial 911.

How do I make a report or learn more about my options?

To make a report, please use the online reporting form. Once submitted, one of our three Report and Response Coordinators will contact you. You can also email the Report and Response Coordinators directly to learn more about your options.

How do I make an accommodations request?

The EOC Office helps employees and students with religious accommodation requests, employees and applicants for employment with disability accommodation requests, and students and applicants for employment with pregnancy accommodation requests. Students seeking disability accommodations should contact the Accessibility Resources and Service Office.

To make a disability accommodations request, a religious accommodations request, or a pregnancy accommodations request, fill out the appropriate forms on the EOC website. For questions related to accommodations, contact Rudy Jones or Elizabeth Hall.

How can I access digital resource materials?

You can find the EOC's brochures and other informational materials available for download on our website. Contact Kelly Dubell for questions about these materials.

How can I access trainings?

The EOC Office offers trainings and online modules throughout the year. Head to the trainings and events page on the EOC website to learn more.

If you need additional support resources and information, please visit safe.unc.edu.
